HISTORICAL SKETCH.

Abstracted from the 25th Anniversary sermon delivered by the Pastor, Dr. P. H. Swift, Sunday evening, March 4th, 1894; with changes to complete the statistical exhibit to date.

The Oakland M. E. Church was organized March 7th, 1869. But, as is usually the case, there was a beginning back of the beginning. So far as any record can be obtained the first Methodist services conducted in this vicinity were class meetings, which were held during the year 1867, at the residence of Mr. M. Van Allen, who then lived at No. 28 Langley street. During that year an attempt was made to organize a church and put up a building. Lots were secured on Cottage Grove Avenue, and lumber enough promised for the erection of a chapel. But the plan failed and the lots were given up. Nothing further was done till late in the fall of 1868. It is probable that the first one to propose the organization of a Church in this community was Mr. Asahel Otis, who broached the subject to Mr. William Rand. The latter gentleman at once offered the use of his parlors as a place where Methodist services might be held. Later in the same year Rev. S. G. Lathrop, Superintendent of the City Sunday School and Missionary Society, in company with Rev. S. A. W. Jewett, then pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, made a tour of inspection through the Northern part of Hyde Park, with the view to select a place to establish a Methodist center of worship in this vicinity. On the report of these men that it seemed that there was an open door in this section, the above named society resolved to move forward in the matter. Mr. Rand kindly offered his parlors as a place where services might be held. The offer was accepted, and arrangements made to hold preaching services on the evening of each Sabbath. It was also agreed that mid-week prayer meetings should be held at private residences; which was thereafter done, namely at the residences of Brothers Otis, Brown, Copeland, Goodrich and Swan. By the middle of February the congregation had grown to such dimensions as to make it necessary to move to other and larger quarters. The worshippers secured a lease of Cleaver Hall, on the corner of Brooks street and Drexel Boulevard; and thereafter public services were held therein every Sabbath, both morning and evening. Soon after taking possession of the new quarters it was decided to organize a Methodist Episcopal Church. March 7th 1869 was set apart as the eventful day. Rev. S. G. Lathrop, who had continued in charge of the enterprise from the first, was present and effected the organization. Twenty-one persons were that day, received by letter, and six on probation. The names of those so received were as follows: In full connection. A. F. Brown, Lydia Brown, Ella E. Brown, Sarah Dutnall, J. R. Flood, Marthette Goodrich, Julia Goodrich, Peter C. Johnson, Asahel Otis, Mary A. Otis, Thomas G. Otis, Carrie Otis, Maria Otis, Mary Otis, Sarah G. Otis, William H. Rand, Harriet L. Rand, Mary Swan, James N. Thacker, Letetia Thacker, Martha Rand. On probation: Caroline Baker, John Dutnall, Aaron J. Goodrich, Kate A. Johnson, John Nourse, Martha Nourse. On the following Sabbath two full members and one probationer was added to the list; and on April 14th eight full members and one probationer was added to the list; and on April 14th, eight full members and one probationer took their places in the ranks of Oakland's membership. On March 17th a Sunday School was organized under most auspicious circumstances with Mr. Wm. H. Rand as Superintendent, which office he held till 1871; when he was succeeded by John H. Mandeville, who served the school for about four years but not consecutively. James Hood filled the office of Superintendent for two years, and was succeeded by D. W. Potter, who for five years did most efficient work. Brother Potter's successor was E. M. Richardson who served one year. W. W. McIlhany followed Brother Richardson, served two years and gave place to F. W. Dickerman, who had charge of the school four years (from 1884 to 1888), at which latter date Brothe J. M. Fleming was elected to the office. At the end of six months he removed to Denver, and A. R. Porter filled out the unexpired term to the end of the year; when James A. Burhans, the president Superintendent was elected. The school has at this date of writing, a membership of about 725; the Primary Department, in charge of Mrs. Burhans, who has been Superintendent for over eleven years, a membership of about 150; Mr. Hill's Bible Class a membership of over 100; while the school as a whole is regarded as one of the best organized in the country. An effort is made to secure the use of the Bible in the School by every member; the star class system is well worked; a successful teacher's meeting is held every Friday evening; quarterly written examinations are provided for; transfers from Departments is made with public graduating exercises, and the presentation of a handsome Testament to the Primary, and a Bible to the Intermediate graduates. A home department has been organized, and is doing efficient work.

The first quarterly Conference was held April 27th, 1869, with Rev. Hooper Crews, then Presiding Elder of the Chicago District, in the chair. At this conference A. F. Brown, Jas. N. Thacker, John Nourse, Aaron Goodrich, and J. R. Flood were elected stewards. At the second Quarterly Conference, which was held July 28th, 1869, a legal organization of the church was effected, and William H. Rand, A. F. Brown, Thomas G. Otis, Thurston Priest, and C. DeWolf were elected as trustees. The name at first selected was "The Oakland M. E. Church." In the fall of 1869 this was changed to "St. Johns"; which continued to be the name of the Church till 1872, when the original name appears again in the Conference Minutes. In 1875 the name of "Langley Avenue" was adopted, by which the Church was known till 1886, when the name of "Oakland" was permanently selected, and engraven on the corner stone of the Church building now occupied.

Up to the present time the Church has been served by thirteen different pastors, seven of whom are now living; those who have passed home being L. G. Lathrop, Dr. R. M. Hatfield, Lewis Meredith, Dr. A. C. George and Dr. C. W. Bennett. In the spring of 1869, Rev. S. G. Lathrop was appointed Superintendent of Methodist Missions in Montana; and Rev. Charles E. Mandeville, who had been recently transferred from Connecticut, was appointed to the Oakland charge. He began his work on the first Sunday in May, 1869, and continued till October 8th 1871. He preached his last sermon to the congregation as pastor on the evening of October 8th—an evening ever to be remembered as the one which saw the commencement of the great fire. During his pastorate Brother Mandeville received thirty-one probationers, and eighty-five full members; and reported one hundred and three in full connection when he retired from the work. It was during this term of service that the first Church building was erected. In the spring of 1870 lots were purchased on the corner of 39th street and Langley Avenue for the sum of $10,000.00; which sum was consequently paid by the Board of Trustees of the First M. E. Church of this city; and on these lots a building was begun February 25th, 1871, which was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Sunday, August 6th, of the same year. The sermons at the time of dedication were preached by Drs. Haven, Reid and Fowler. The two first named have passed to their everlasting reward; and the last named is now one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The church building was two stories, the first floor being used for Sunday School and class rooms, and the Pastor's study. The capacity of the audience room was about five hundred. The total cost of the building and furnishing was $12,- 000.00. The congregation continued to worship in that building for a little more than sixteen years, when it took possession of the larger and more elegant edifice now occupied by the society, and located on the corner of Oakwood Boulevard and Langley Avenue.

At the Conference of 1871, Rev. Charles G. Trusdell was appointed to the charge, which he served for one year. During that year, the burdens occasioned by the great fire rested heavily on the church and congregation, and Brother Trusdell magnanimously remitted his salary for the year, serving the charge till the fall of 1872 without pay. At that date, having assumed the duties of Superintendent of the Chicago Relief and Aid Society (a position which he has ever since filled), Brother Trusdell retired from the work at Oakland Church, having received during his pastorate three probationers and forty-eight full members, and brought the membership at the close of the year to one hundred and thirty-six. Rev. J. F. Yates was appointed as Brother Trusdell's successor, and continued in charge one year, during which time he received twenty-eight full members, and reported one hundred and forty names at the close of the year. At the Conference of 1873, Rev. Lewis Meredith was assigned to the church as its Pastor. He was one of the most spiritual and sweetest tempered of men, and his ministry was precious to the saints in Oakland's fold. When he closed his pastorate, two years later, he reported one hundred and sixty-four full members and eight probationers, he having received during his ministry with this people nine probationers and fifty-eight full members. Brother Meredith's successor was Rev. W. C. Willing, D. D., who served the church for two years, at the expiration of which time he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Chicago District. Thirty-nine probationers and seventy-five full members were added to the church by him; and Dr. Willing reported one hundred and seventy full members when he laid down the mantle of duty. During the three years from 1877 to 1880, Rev. T. C. Clendenning served the charge as Pastor. These were years of growth and prosperity. One hundred and fifteen probationers and one hundred and sixty-eight full members came into the society under Brother Clendenning's ministry, and the membership roll was increased from one hundred and seventy to two hundred and thirty-seven. The largest missionary collection given by the Church during the first thirteen years of its history was given during the second year of this pastorate, the sum being $117.00. In 1880, Dr. R. M. Hatfield was appointed as Pastor. Dr. Hatfield was one of the strongest preachers the denomination has produced during the last half century, and the members who worshiped at Oakland during that period hold his name in everlasting remembrance. Eighty-nine persons were added to the Church during the two years of his service, and report says that the membership was two hundred and sixty-eight when the reluctant Church was compelled to part with its beloved Pastor. Dr. Hatfield's successor was the Rev. J. W. Richards, who served the Church most faithfully for one year, receiving thirty-two members, and doing grand work notwithstanding embarrassments under which he was called to labor. The Conference of 1883 appointed Rev. A. C. George, D. D., as Brother Richard's successor. Dr. George was the Napoleon of Western Methodism. He had done heroic and most effective service on many a field; his brain and heart gave the inspiration that carried to perfection the great Ecumenical Council of Methodism. But the burdens had been too heavy, and the giant gave way under the pressure, and in August, 1885, he was transferred from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant. He received forty-seven members during his pastorate. The last months of Dr. George's second year were filled out by Rev. Charles W. Bennett, D. D., LL. D., Professor of Historical Theology in Garrett Biblical Institute. He was a rare scholar and a ripe Christian gentleman. It is not to be wondered that those months brought great spiritual uplift to the Church. In March, 1885, the society secured the services of Mrs. L. O. Robinson, the noted lady Evangelist. Her labors were greatly blessed, and more than one hundred precious souls were born into the Kingdom, eighty-seven of whom were received into this Church as probationers. Scores of people date their better Christian experience from that hour. That was the transformation scene in the history of the Oakland M. E. Church. The membership, which had been depleted by frequent removals during the previous two or three years, rose again under this spiritual inspiration, and is recorded at three hundred and fourteen. Forty-four persons received baptism from Dr. Bennett's hands, and seventy-five were received into full membership by him. Under his judicious care, nearly all of the probationers were saved to the Church, and at the end of his brief pastorate, the society was stronger in every respect than ever before in its history. In October, 1885, Rev. J. M. Caldwell, D. D., was appointed Pastor. When he came, the doors of prosperity were swinging on the hinges of promise, and every promise was more than realized. His was the first five years pastorate in the history of the Church, and during that time Dr. Caldwell received two hundred and ninety-six probationers and eight hundred and thirty-eight full members, and the records show a membership of eight hundred and four when those five eventful years came to a close. It was during his pastorate that the building now occupied by the society was erected, at a cost of about $75,000.00, or about $53,000.00 above the proceeds of the old property at the corner of Thirty-ninth street and Langley avenue. It is an elegant structure of gray stone, handsomely finished and furnished, situated on the southwest corner of Oakwood boulevard and Langley avenue, and is at present richly worth $100,000.00; and the prop-

The Conference of 1890 assigned the present Pastor, the Rev. Dr. P. H. Swift, to the charge, which he has now served for four years and ten months. During this time, he has received into the church 359 probationers and 772 full members, the roll of membership now standing 978 full members and 42 probationers, or 1,020 full members and probationers, resident and non-resident. The records show that the blessing of God has been upon the church. The larges t number of members received into full connection in any one year since its organization was 216, received by letter and from probation during the year ending October 1st, 1891. The largest number of probationers received during any one year was 178, which number was received during the year ending October 1st, 1893. The largest number of probationers received any one day was 100, that being the number received February 19th, 1893. The largest collection for the Missionary Society in any one year was $730.00, that being the offering for the year ending October 1st, 1894. The largest collection for the W. F. M. S. was taken in 1891, and reached the sum of $606.00. The largest collection of the W. H. M. S. was taken in 1892, and amounted to $500.00. The largest offering of the church to the Conference Claimants' Fund made during its history was $450.00, for the year ending October 1st, 1891. The church is prosperous in all departments. The various societies, with outline of work and achievements, will be found in another part of this book. All of these organizations are doing splendid work for Christ and the church. Truly God has blessed his people. March 7th, 1894, the church completed the first twenty-five years of its history. This event was celebrated in a most fitting manner by a week of services, which began Sunday, March 4th, and closed Sunday, March 11th. The program was as follows:

During the twenty-six years of the church's history it has contributed to all purposes the sum of $181,187; which has been divided as follows: For support of pastor, $55,145; for Missions, $6,105; for W. F. M. S. $3,626; for W. H. M. S. $3,521; for Church Extension, $2,493; for Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education, $996, for Bible Cause, $201; for Sunday School Union and Tract Causa, $324; for Conference Claimants, 2,871; for Education (mostly Children's Day Fund) $484; for Support of Bishops, $640, for Support of Presiding Elder, $2,829; for Other Benevolences, $19,652; Current Expenses, $27,400; for Support of the Sunday School, about $5,000; for Church building (over and above the amount received from first M. E. Church, and the rise in value of the 39th street lots) about, $50,000. Perhaps other contributions, quite beyond the ken of the historian, would swell the offerings of the Church to full $200,000.

God has blessed the Church spiritually in a wonderful manner. The organization was launched with twenty-one members on the 7th of March 1860. Since that time 956 persons have been received on probation, and 2,442 to full membership by letter and from probation. Of these 105 have been transferred from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant; four other churches have been organized by those who have gone from us: Woodland Park, Hyde Park, Ken; wood and Washington Park, M. E. Churches-many have gone to distant Churches, and a small army have moved to the suburbs to enrich Methodism there, and yet 978 remain in the fellowship of the old home Church. That is to say the increase of the membership has been more than 50 fold. It is more probable that over 2,000 have been converted at the alters of the Church during the 26 years of its history. And, when we remember that the Master said that a soul is of more value than a world we begin to get a faint glimpse of the work done by Oakland M. E. Church in the years that are gone. Truly the history of this Church in the past is a wonderful illustration of the fact that the Evangelistic spirit is the path of victory. It is the hope of the Church. We ought to be thankful for what God has done for us in the days that are gone; and then reconsecrate ourselves to him for grander victories in the future.
